BACKGROUND

Madhya Pradesh Bhoj (Open) University has established the first phase of EDUSAT network. This is the first university, which has established a dedicated hub for higher and distance education. Video lectures are being successfully telecasted for the students of rural and urban areas through Satellite Interactive Terminals (SIT). At present 40 SITs are operational. These video lectures are being delivered by renowned subject experts having capacity and skill to face video camera. About 100 topics in 10 different subjects for part-one students have already been covered. We are still looking for such more experts of expertise and capacity.

Offers from subject experts working as Professor/ Reader/ Assistant Professor/Lecturer in any college on permanent basis are invited. Important conditions are as follows-

1. Please select five topics, from the syllabus as prescribed by MPBOU. Copy of syllabus is available on website and can be down loaded. (www.bhojvirtualuniversity.com)
2. Selected topics should justifiably cover sufficient part of the syllabus. Difficult topics and topics important from examination point of view should be preferred.
3. Due care should be taken that this content will be delivered to students of rural areas, therefore content, mode, language, expression and way of delivery of lecture can be planned accordingly.
4. You have to deliver at least five lectures, each of one hour duration in two parts of 30 minutes duration each. Continuity between two parts is essential. Delivery of lectures will be in Hindi language except for English literature. Lectures may be from same paper/unit.
5. The mode of delivery of video lecture in studio is entirely different from traditional class room lecture. Video lecture will be acceptable with enough visual aids like power point presentation, charts, sketches, figures, photos, films, video clippings etc.
6. A video lectures must include, title, objectives, introduction, content, summary and references with inbuilt questions. A model power point presentation covering these points is available in website for guidance.

7. Another challenge of video lecture is time duration, means your part of lecture must be finished exactly in 30 minutes, with the help of visuals and power point presentation. Speed of speech neither should be too slow or too fast to makeup time. At 20 to 25 slides are required to deliver a video lecture of 30 minute duration.

8. Recording of video lectures will be taken at the studio of either NITTTR or MPBOU.

9. Following will be the process of video lectures recording-

- a. Two days training at the place decided by university (only once)
- b. One day for checking of power point and way of delivery
- c. Actual recording on next day.

10. If any figure or graphics is to be included or to be downloaded from Internet for any slide, the hand sketch, photocopy or Internet reference should be mentioned.

11. You will be responsible for validation of your script and lecture. You may bring any other person at the time of recording for the purpose of validation. Remuneration will not be payable to validating person.

12. Remuneration @ Rs 1000 (one thousand) per lecture of one hour duration will be paid after successful completion of recording. Remuneration will be payable only if five lectures are recorded in stipulated time.

13. The copy right of all video lectures will be with Madhya Pradesh bhoj (Open) University.

14. It is made clear regarding power point presentation for video lectures that subject experts will have to make power point presentation by themselves. This power point presentation should be exactly in the same line as available in website, particularly the colour scheme of slide, colour, type and size of the font and number of lines in one slide.

If you feel willing to deliver video lectures under above mentioned conditions, please fill up the form given in brochure and send it either through post or through email.
